In the event of dissolution of the Company or club, the members shall not have any right to, or claim upon, any property of the Company or club, or be required to share in any discharge of its obligations, nor be entitled to any refund/reimbursement of annual subscription.

29. OTHER IMPORTANT RULES

1. The Company may transfer its rights and obligations under the Contract (which incorporates these Rules and the Byelaws) with each member to someone else.
2. Nobody else has any rights under the Contract (which incorporates these Rules and the Byelaws) between the Company and each member. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms.
3. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds any part of these Rules and/or the Byelaws illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these Rules and the Byelaws operate separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.
4. Even if the Company delays in enforcing the Contract (which incorporates these Rules and the Byelaws), it can still enforce it later. If the Company does not insist immediately that a member does anything it is required to do under these Rules and/or the Byelaws, or if the Company delays in taking steps against a member in respect of their breaking these Rules and/or the Byelaws, that will not mean that the member does not have to do those things and it will not prevent the Company taking steps against that member at a later date. For example, if a member misses a payment and the Company does not chase that member but continues to allow that member access to the club, the Company can still require that member to make the payment at a later date.

30. BYELAWS

The Company may make Byelaws for the regulation and management of the club ("Byelaws") and may amend or revoke any Byelaws so made at any time; but no Byelaw shall be inconsistent with these Rules.
